79/11 Footpaths and Stiles

The Council requested that the clerk chase the previous report of damaged stiles. Cllr Eve has also noted a damaged stile and he will send the exact location to the clerk.

Clerk/
Cllr Eve

80/11 Allotment Update

Nothing to report.

81/11 Playarea Update

The RoSPA reported has not been received yet. The council discussed the gate nearest the village hall, it is a real hazard. The council agreed to seal this gate, Cllr Ashman and Cllr Eve will do this.

82/11 Village maintenance

The rain water gullies have still not been cleared out, should we have a sudden downpour this could be a serious issue. The clerk will chase Chris Riley about this issue.

83/11 Highways Repairs & Maintenance

Whilst resurfacing the road, the area outside of The Forge seems to have been completely missed, there are numerous other patches through the village as well. Cllr Eve will contact Dave Portlock to discuss. The signs have still not been erected on St Peters Street and the sign by the railway bridge has been spun around. Cllr Eve will also discuss these with Dave Portlock.

84/11 Any Other Business

Cllr Lumley mentioned the presentation by the village hall at the Annual Parish meeting, Cllr Lumley had been approached about the itinerary for the evening. The clerk confirmed she has been in contact with Bob Hallam and everything is now confirmed.

With regards the APM, the clerk will purchase the tea and coffee, if all councillors could be at the village hall for 7pm to set up it would be appreciated.

Cllr Ashman thanked Cllr Cook for all his hard work on the website, it has been vastly improved.
